

Official FFA Dress

As FFA members, we have the opportunity to impact many people who may or may not be familiar with the organization: Community residents, businessmen and women, FFA sponsors, guests, parents, etc.

Therefore, first impressions are crucial, and that involves the way we dress. ALL FFA members are required to wear official dress while participating in official activities

Remember to check the following to ensure that you are adhering to official dress:

- Official FFA jacket zipped to the top
- Official FFA tie or scarf
- Correct number of pins displayed
- Skirts of appropriate length
- Appropriate footwear
- Remember, it's an honor to wear the blue corduroy jacket and official dress representing the legacy of FFA. Wear it properly - and with pride.

Female Official Dress

- Black skirt - Skirt is to be at least knee length, hemmed evenly across the bottom, with a slit no longer than 2 inches above the knee, excluding the kick pleat
- White collared blouse & Official FFA blue scarf
- Black dress shoes with a closed heel and toe (no boots, sandals, open-toed shoes, tennis shoes,)
- Black nylon hosiery
- Official FFA jacket zipped to the top.
- Black Slacks may be appropriate for traveling and outdoor activities.

Male Official Dress

- Black dress pants (no jeans - blue or black, leather, pleather, etc.)
- White dress shirt & Official FFA tie
- Black dress shoes with a closed heel and toe. (no boots, sandals, open-toed shoes, tennis shoes,)
- Black socks
- Official FFA jacket zipped to the top

How to Wear Awards

Chapter degree, officer and award medals should be worn beneath the name of the right side of the jacket.

State FFA Degree or American Degree key should be worn above the name or attached to a standard key chain.

No more than 3 medals should be worn on the jacket. These should represent highest degree earned, highest office held and the highest award earned.

Advisors please remember this general contest rule.

XIV. In order to receive an award at the State Career Development Event or State Convention, all members of a team must wear official dress. Advisors are also expected to dress professionally.
